

Do I need a personal licence to serve alcohol?

No one is required to hold a personal licence to work in any licensed premises other than the person who is the designated premises supervisor in respect of the premises licence, referred to above.

However, every supply of alcohol under the premises licence must be made or authorised by a person who holds a personal licence.

How we can help?

Call us on 01277 631 811 or complete the form on our website for more information.